DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On May 24, 2018, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (“SIRVA”) as a result of an influenza vaccine received on November 15, 2016. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On April 11, 2019, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding petitioner entitled to compensation for her SIRVA. On August 21, 2019, respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating petitioner should be awarded $123,783.72 (representing $115,000.00 for pain and suffering and $8,783.72 for past unreimbursable

¹ The undersigned intends to post this decision on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website.

This means the decision will be available to anyone with access to the internet. In accordance with Vaccine Rule 18(b), petitioner has 14 days to identify and move to redact medical or other information, the disclosure of which would constitute an unwarranted invasion of privacy. If, upon review, the undersigned agrees that the identified material fits within this definition, the undersigned will redact such material from public access. Because this unpublished decision contains a reasoned explanation for the action in this case, undersigned is required to post it on the United States Court of Federal Claims' website in accordance with the E-Government Act of 2002. 44 U.S.C. § 3501 note (2012) (Federal Management and Promotion of Electronic Government Services).

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

expenses). Proffer at 2. In the Proffer, respondent represented that petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. Based on the record as a whole, the undersigned finds that petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, the undersigned awards petitioner a lump sum payment of $123,783.72 (representing $115,000.00 for pain and suffering and $8,783.72 for past unreimbursable expenses) in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Staci McTeigue. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under § 15(a).

The clerk of the court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Nora Beth Dorsey
Chief Special Master

³ Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), entry of judgment can be expedited by the parties' joint filing of notice renouncing the right to seek review.

B. Unreimbursable Expenses

Evidence supplied by petitioner documents petitioner's unreimbursable expenses as a result of her vaccine injury. Respondent proffers that petitioner should be awarded unreimbursable expenses in the amount of $8,783.72, as provided under the Vaccine Act, 42 U.S.C. § 300aa-15(a)(1)(B). Petitioner agrees.

II. Form of the Award

Petitioner is a competent adult. Evidence of guardianship is not required in this case. Respondent recommends that the compensation provided to petitioner should be made through a lump sum payment as described below and requests that the Chief Special Master's decision and the Court's judgment award the following¹: a lump sum payment of $123,783.72, representing compensation for pain and suffering ($115,000.00), and past unreimbursable expenses ($8,783.72), in the form of a check payable to petitioner, Staci McTeigue.

III. Summary of Recommended Payments Following Judgment
